

Bernardsville Middle School
2010 Summer Reading
Book Sale!

Dear Parents/Guardians and Students,

The Bernardsville Middle School Library, in cooperation with the wonderful Bookworm of Bernardsville, would like to offer students entering grades 5-9 a chance to purchase their summer reading books before they leave for vacation. We are taking orders on a prepaid basis, and the books will be delivered to BMS and then directly to your child.

The DEADLINE to order books is Monday, June 7th. Please check off your selections and send in this entire completed order form with a check payable to Bernardsville Middle School in an envelope marked "Attention: Summer Reading Book Sale 2010." The Bookworm is generously donating 20% of the proceeds back to the BMS Library to use toward programs, books, and book clubs for next year!

Additionally, BMS will be participating in an exciting One School, One Book project over the summer and next fall, which will culminate in the author visiting our school! All students are requested to read Jeremy Fink and the Meaning of Life* by Wendy Mass and at least ONE of her additional titles before they return in September. Reading these books will prepare students for the great author-related events that will take place when school is back in session.

Students may read as many of the additional suggested titles as they would like, and I would challenge you to see if you can read them all! You may, of course, order books from any of the grade level lists that you would like with your parent's/guardian's approval. You are not limited to just your own grade. The official summer reading lists, with book introductions, are located on the SHSD website. Check them out! At the end of the order form, you will see the Bookworm is also offering a selection of popular adult titles, so parents can also enjoy some great summer reading and help out BMS at the same time!

I hope you will take advantage of this offer to get ready for summer vacation and support the BMS Library! If you have questions, please don't hesitate to contact me at kmacgorman@shsd.org.

Happy Summer Reading!
Miss Kristen MacGorman
BMS School Librarian

Please Note: All suggested summer reading titles are recommended based on reading level. It is up to you and your parents/guardians to decide which books are appropriate for you.
