

We're excited to be counting down the days until the launch of our new website!

Why a new website? Over the years how people find and use information online has changed...and it is time for our website to change too. These days, our website users want easier access to library-specific information with a simpler, visually-forward, sophisticated look. Fortunately, technology has advanced to enable us to create a dynamic, low maintenance, user-friendly design that we hope you'll love!

We know you are accustomed to our website just the way it is and you might be concerned that it'll take you time to get used to the new one. Give it a try! And remember we're just a phone call away to help you find whatever you're looking for. We're confident that once you experience the fresh look and the ease of navigating the new site, you will like it as much as we do.
